National Tests

A big well done to all the children who have sat the national tests this week. I know it can be hard for the children, but unfortunately we have to do them and in a particular way. If your child has been absent for any of the tests they will do them on Monday, Tue or Wednesday next week, in a group with an adult.

Jane Hand & Amanda Lewis (parent) are organising a trip for parents and their children to Park Hall in Oswestry on Wednesday 31st May (next half term holiday). Seats on the bus will be £3 each and entry to park hall will be confirmed when we have the final numbers (they are doing a reduced rate for the group). If you would like places then please get in touch with either Jane Hand or Amanda Lewis to book. This can be done via the parents page on facebook if that is easier. Places are limited.
