Dear Parent/Carer,

RE: Home Learning to continue until 29th January at the earliest

As I am sure you will be aware, Welsh Government announced on Friday that the current arrangements for remote learning will continue until 29th January at the earliest.

As well as providing childcare for key worker's children and vulnerable children, staff at school are working hard to provide quality home learning activities. If you require any support or guidance with home learning, please do not hesitate to contact school. I recognise how challenging the current situation is for many families, but your support is greatly appreciated, thank you.

Kind regards,

Phil Dickson
