

Stars of the week – 16th April 2021

Pine	Nemesia Firman	For an excellent approach to maths this week. A real fraction expert!
Silver Birch	Kai Williams	For being more ambitious in his work.
Elm	Bella Valentine Myles Dickens	For her amazing understanding of division in maths. For his mature attitude and ability to cope with the change of working in a different class.
Maple	Riley Hargreaves	For being a capable and ambitious learner with adding and subtracting fractions.
Ash	Mason Roberts Langford	For overcoming challenges to improve his use of division.
Palm	Tulisa Griffiths	For being ambitious in explaining her ideas through art in our new topic.
Cherry	Ivy Birch	For being an ambitious, capable learner by challenging herself in maths this week.
Rowan	Cadie Jones & Willow Tinkley	For amazing maths work with relating number bonds. For being a capable and ambitious learner.
Oak	Noah Rowbottom	For being an ambitious learner and never giving up when learning to count in 2s.
Coch	Theo Griffiths	For developing confidence and more independence in the classroom.
Melyn	Olivia Valentine	For super letter recognition and formation.
Gwyrdd	Lucas Prach	For fantastic investigating and collaboration in Forest school, well done Lucas!